Printed by S. POWELL, for the AUTHOR,
M DCC XLVIII.

240 A Literary Journal. Art. 15.

in 8vo. of Dr. Middleton's free Enquiry into the miraculous Powers, &c. (see pag. 46 of this Journal.)

Since my last was published, Mr. James Simon's Essay on the Coins of Ireland; which Performance hath met with an Universal Approbation.

Just published by Mr. Ab. Bradley, Bookseller in Dame-street, a 6th Edition of the Negociator's Magazine, or the most authentic account yet published of the Monies, Weights, and Measures of the principal Places of Trade in the World. Also an account of the European Exchanges in General: The Customs of Merchants relating thereto; and Rules and Examples to cast them up by; with the Nature and Use of Simple and Compound Arbitrations; and an History of the English Gold and Silver Coins, for near 500 Years past. To which are added, curious Calculations of great use in the West-Indies, Carolina and New England Trades; and Tables, shewing the intrinsic Value of any foreign Gold, or Silver Coin. All of great use to Merchants and Traders; and entirely necessary to those who would understand Merchants Accompts. By Rd. Hayes, 8vo.
